

Dubinsky: Yes, Andrei, good evening.

A. K.: Sergei Nikolaevich, I salute you.

Dubinsky: Good evening.

A. K. : Good evening, Sergei Nikolaevich.

A. K.: I could not get through to you, today and yesterday, Leonid Vladimirovich... just gave me your phone number.

Dubinsky: Alright.

A. K.: The one you are using now.

Dubinsky: Yep.

A. K.: Well, I actually called the day before yesterday and yesterday to tell you that you'll be summoned... To Moscow...

Dubinsky: Ok.

A. K.:... I understand they already summoned you, right? Because...

Dubinsky: Yes, today I was called by Boroday ...

Dubinsky: he said I should be there on Thursday. Ok..

A. K: There you go

Dubinsky: Yes.

A. K.: We, for our part, are having certain difficulties.

Dubinsky: Of what kind?

A. K.: Well, I think we will overcome these difficulties, but I do not want to discuss it on this line.

Dubinsky: Probably connected with me, or what?

A. K.: Indeed with you, well we will solve them in principle; that's not a problem, So... on Thursday after a meeting, ring me and we'll do what is necessary.. I will either put you in touch with "S" by phone, or he will tell you a time...well Surkov...will tell the time when you will meet, if there are any difficulties.

Dubinsky: Thank you very much Andrei, well, so if I understand correctly there should be some progress already, right?

A. K.: We will resolve it, we will put pressure to get it done... We will be able to get the full-scale process off the ground only after the 8th.... All you need, and I want you to know that in any case, we will resolve this issue.

Dubinsky: Clear

A. K.: Because people like you, they have to lead and have to in charge. Accept my thanks, and goodbye.

Dubinsky: Clear. Thank you, goodbye.

Dubinsky: I'm listening, hello.

A. K.: Hello, Sergey Nikolaevich.

Dubinsky: Yes, yes, I'm listening.

A. K.: I just had coffee with Oleg Ivanovich, he sent you his warm regards.

Dubinsky: Thank you, thank you very much.

A. K.: He asked for your status report. Said you should send it via email, I will send you the e-mail address now.

Dubinsky: I'll send the report... what should it be exactly?

A. K.: Well, general data, nothing [too specific], just the basics and all.

Dubinsky: About me? Or my vision about how I would, you know.

A. K.: No, you will present your vision personally later.

Dubinsky: Alright.

A. K.: General information.

Dubinsky: But what type of general information? Date of birth, last name, first name, patronymic, what exactly?

A. K.: Yes, yes, that, plus your ranks and all. And I think Alexander Vasilyevich will ask himself about everything else.

Dubinsky: Got it. Alexander Vasilyevich, who is this? Wait a sec..

A. K.: That's Bortnikov.

Dubinsky: Ah, I understand, I understand. But, in principle, he should have everything, from Vladimir Ivanovich. Okay I will send it, I will send it, good.

A. K.: Well, Oleg Ivanovich asked me, he remembers by the way, he asked, he asked whether you are in Moscow or not, I said no, you're in the region. He mentioned about your issue that you discussed with him.

Dubinsky: U-huh.

A. K.: About the report, he says, well, general data, I think you can figure out how to do it best.

Dubinsky: Ok, good, I got it, thank you Andrei.

A. K.: Maybe it will be enough for you to send it via SMS, I will have it typed on the computer, I will have my secretary type it.

Dubinsky: Good.

A. K.: This is not a problem, and tomorrow at 10:30 I have an appointment, these are already other people, I will discuss with them.

Dubinsky: Well, Andrei, I'll do it, well, thank you.

A. K.: That's it then, I will have this meeting to discuss things tomorrow morning, talk to you tomorrow.

Dubinsky: I understand, once again.

Kharchenko: Hello.

A. K.: Good evening.

Kharchenko: What's the news there? Are we working or not working? The boys are already in combat readiness, everyone is waiting.

A. K.: Well then tomorrow morning I will give you instruction regarding the place, about the letter "T"

Kharchenko: About what?

A. K. : About Tashkent, what is the situation?

Kharchenko: He is not in Donetsk.

A. K.:Well, we do not have him here either.

Kharchenko: Well, he must be somewhere, because we had an attempted coup d'etat, an attempt on Zakhar's life after all.

A. K.:Uh-huh.

Kharchenko: That's how it is.

A. K.: Is everything okay?

Kharchenko.:We are fine, we are working on this case now.

A. K.: Got it... I understand that Zakhar knows who to get involved, I mean you.

Kharchenko: Yes.

A. K.:I understand that you are on the same side with him?

Kharchenko.:Well, what else can we do?

A. K.:Well, that's what matters.

Kharchenko: To change the person now... well that will only benefit the other side, there's no other way.

A. K.:Of course, of course. Ok, that's all, goodbye.

Kharchenko: All right, I am reachable, good night.

A. K.: Good night to you, too.

V.V. Lunev: Hello, hello

A.K.. : Good day to you.

Vitaliy Valeriyovich Lunev

V.V. Lunev: Good day, Andrei Nikolaevich, there is a situation, look, just got word that it's all under investigation now, and the MGB is conducting investigations, and thus we can not release them, as they were arrested, and all the materials were transferred to the MGB, and they are now with Pinchuk at the MGG.

V.V. Lunev: That's why until they clarify all circumstances... and taxes won't help there...so if he gives his okay, then yes, but if not, we can't do it.

A. K.: And what if people from Shorsa try to influence this situation?

V.V. Lunev: Well, I think so, yes.

A. K.: You understand who I am talking about?

V.V. Lunev: Yes.

A. K.:I mean about my colleagues who are there, do you understand?

V.V. Lunev: Yes.

A. K.: They can influence,.. They are at Pinchuk's office, right?

V.V. Lunev: Yes, yes.

A. K.: Good, I got it then, we will settle things, thanks and talk soon.

V.V. Lunev: Bye-bye.

A.K.. : Thank you.

Kharchenko: Yes, hello.

A.K.. : Is it a good time to speak?

Kharchenko: Yes, it's okay.

A. K.: In a word, so that I understand for myself, you will talk to Zakharchenko on this topic tomorrow, correct?

Kharchenko .YES, Tomorrow Nikolaivych will personally discuss this topic, and talk about it, as Tashkent avoids this topic, and says he can not do anything, because, he says, it is a personal topic, under Zakhar's control.

A. K.: I haven't seen Surkov on your topic yet, we moved the meeting to the 7th, pushed it forward again. They told me about Nikolayevich specifically, I said this back during our meeting. Now the situation is frozen for everyone, absolutely for everyone. Who's talking there, I can hear Dima Avtonomov?

A. K.: I had a discussion at Lubyanka. They're totally delirious.. Well, anyway, Leonid Vladimirovich, it's not to be discussed over the phone, because neither your connection, nor my connection is, you know its equivalent to us...

Kharchenko: Yes I get that.

A. K.: ...and not only in one direction, but in two directions...

Kharchenko: I will try to be in Moscow after New Year.

A. K.: The only thing is that on the 7th I will have a meeting with the one I told you.

Kharchenko.:Yep.

A. K.: And we will discuss all the questions, all the details. Where will you be on New Year's Eve? In the region?

Kharchenko.:Yes, I'll be in the region, I'll be here, because we can't go away, we're in fighting readiness, because we have intelligence that the Ukrops will go on the offensive for New Year. On our part, whatever we can do, we do, you know...

A. K.:Uh-huh.

Kharchenko: We need people in Moscow to move a little bit, if they want ... we never refuse anything, as you well know, we do everything that ...is needed.

A. K.: I will meet with "S" on the 7th, I will call you on the 7th in the evening and try to make sure that you get ...

Kharchenko: In fact, if you need to make an appointment, at least we can meet in Moscow...

A. N. K. : I think at first, I think you will meet with the official first, I will try to arrange the meeting, first you, and then we will discuss how Nikolaevich will meet.

Kharchenko: Okay.

A. K.: Because they may not want to meet directly with Nikolaivch, considering the common position.

Kharchenko.: Well, you know this position, if there is something to be done, from a financial...

A. K.:No, no...

Kharchenko: Do understand, Andrey, as far as I know, everyone takes money to them.

A. K.: Come on, no.

Kharchenko: Okay, it's not a conversation for the phone... When we meet in person...

A. K.: Not over the phone and it's not like that, it's not that absolutely, well, not in this matter, right now no one, no one more or less serious in Russia... does not have such contacts with anyone, absolutely.

Kharchenko : U-huh, I understand.

A. K.: It would be great to agree with “S” that have everyone is playing the same game today. It would be ideal for everybody. This blanket-pulling, to the left, to the right, it will not lead to a good thing.

Kharchenko : That's right, that's a total madhouse

A.K.: Like for example in Ukraine, when they pulled the blanket to the left, to the right and you see what they got in the end. Then there will be order in the republic, they will establish this whole system without problems.

Kharchenko L.V.: It is easier for us to enforce it on the ground...both there and there...

A.K.: It would be desirable to have a normal relationship, so that you have a normal relationship with Zakharchenko...

Kharchenko : Well, that's understandable.

A.K.: ...and with Tashkent.. so as for all to play in the same direction... All good then, we stay in touch, before the New Year, with God's help, let us talk more. Godspeed!

Kharchenko L.V.: Godspeed!

A. K.: Happy holidays.

Kharchenko : Happy to you too.

A.K.: Goodbye.

Dubinskiy.: Yes, Andrey, I'm listening to you.

A.K.: Hello, Sergei Nikolaevich, I just talked with Oleg Ivanovich and another person...

Dubinskiy.:OK.

A.K.:They ask, where exactly did they summon you to on Thursday?

Dubinskiy.: I... I just got a call today and was told to be there on Thursday morning, and that I would be definitely seen on Thursday or Friday morning, so they said.

A.K.: To Surkov's place, right?

Dubinskiy.: No, to the other person, who... not to Surkov. The other one..

A.K.: Tell me to which sector. What is the place? We just need to understand who, well, because people requested... we addressed two channels, we need to understand which of these people will organize this meeting.

Dubinskiy.: Boroday called me, and as far as I understood the situation.. it is to Vladimir Ivanovich... the one who is at ...Lubyanka.

A.M. Kunavyn: Got it, I got it all, thank you very much!

Dubinskiy.: All right, goodbye.

Dubinskiy.: Yes, hello.

A.K.: Hello. Good evening... Good night. Yes, I just got out of the meeting. Couldn't speak earlier. You... you didn't finish what you were saying. We talked about what the director signed.

S.M Dubinskiy.: Yes, the director signed the order. A report was brought there. The head of the second department - Sedov signed an order for the release and so on... He gave instructions to the various services, who should do what. And I was told that on Tuesday, they will go also... and something must still be done at DOI. I just didn't comprehend, there was an order from comrade "S" after all, what the heck is the role of DOI, I don't get it. Well, the fact is... they said they'd try to do it all in a few days. The point is that the director signed off on the report of the head of the second service, agreed to it that I come in. Now, there's no point in people lying to me there, a real general from the second service.

Andrey K.: So, what did he sign off on, I can't get it?

Dubinskiy.: Well, something there... to the deputy Smirnov, instructions what to ensure there, to eliminate it, to clean it all up there - a flag, so... and something, I still don't understand, they have to coordinate something with DOI there, for me it's not clear, it will be clear on Tuesday.

A. K.: I think in any case, if this is the format, you will be summoned further and will communicate with them, either directly there or across the street.

Dubinskiy.:Well, let's see. You were promised you'd be told something there on Tuesday, right?

A.K.:Yes, of course.

Dubinskiy.: Yes, Andrei. Yes, Andrei. I am listening?

A. K.: Hello, Sergei Nikolaevich, hello. I just got out of the meeting.

D: Good afternoon. U-huh...

K: Sergei Nikolaevich, I just want to say...we just raised your issue again.

D: Right.

K: Well, how can I say this objectively as of now: the letter "S", who is here, with us...

D: All right.

Q: So he says that no one should meddle into this matter and no one should do anything. He says that for now, things should remain as they are, nothing should change.

D: I get it, I get it.

K: Look, I will be in Rostov in the coming days.

D: Yeah.

K: And I will be there... I will be introduced to the head of our service in that region.

D: I got it, I got it. Great, all right. Good-bye.

K: Goodbye. Thank you.
